

Spot the Grammar Mistakes

Which of the sentences are grammatically incorrect? Correct the mistakes.

Exercise 1.

1. Catherine doesn't really like living on her own.
2. I think is true.
3. Gary's married to a nurse.
4. They found the book boring.
5. She left without say goodbye.
6. I'm not used to drink such strong coffee.
7. Can you tell me where is it?

.....

Exercise 2.

1. We arrived to London last night.
2. Where did you born?
3. How long have you been living in Paris?
4. I'm not agree.
5. I'll phone him later.
6. I don't know nothing about the new job.
7. I'm looking forward to going home.

.....

Exercise 3.

1. Do you know where Sam is?
2. I haven't got much money.
3. She likes very much Italy.
4. There is ten people here.
5. She's doctor.
6. Have you seen my blue nice shirt?
7. Please remember to feed the cat.

Answers

Ex 1.

1. ✓
2. I think it's true
3. ✓
4. ✓
5. She left without saying goodbye.
6. I'm not used to drinking such strong coffee.
7. Can you tell me where it is?

Ex 2.

1. We arrived in London last night.
2. Where were you born?
3. ✓
4. I don't agree / (or: I disagree)
5. ✓
6. I don't know anything about the new job.
7. ✓

Ex 3.

1. ✓
2. ✓
3. She likes Italy very much.
4. There are ten people here.
5. She's a doctor.
6. Have you seen my nice blue shirt?
7. ✓